

A Unique Ground Floor Opportunity in the Ever-Changing World Of California Water

Join AQUAOSO and the California Chapter, ASFMRA as a sponsor of California's first free online digital water map!

The map will offer users specific, reliable land and water information for properties in all California counties. At the click of a button users will be able to access:

- County details
- GSA contact information
- Water District contacts
- Basin priorities
- Streets
- Satellite image
- Townships and ranges
- Name, contact information for county sponsors

The new water maps will be hosted through the AQUAOSO website with access available at no charge to the consumer. In the ever-changing world of water for agriculture in California, this is an incredible tool!
