AMERICAN SOCIETY OF FARM MANAGERS AND RURAL APPRAISERS FALL ~ 2007

A Message from the President

Randy Edwards, ARA

Days are getting shorter, almond dust is flying and corn is coming down, fall must be upon us. It's time to think about the upcoming fall meeting on October 25 -27 in Monterey. Whether you want to get out of valley heat or just need a change of scenery, Monterey is a choice coastal destination. The chapter appreciates your support and commitment to this event. We need a strong turn out to make this a success, so please make your reservations today.

This is probably my last President's Message to write. So I would like to say I have enjoyed this past year serving as your chapter president and want to thank everyone for their support. I would encourage each of you to become more active in our chapter activities and get on those committees, attend events and courses. This is vital to the survival of our revered organization and our way of life as agricultural professionals.

Fall Meeting in Monterey October 25-27

You won't want to miss the California Chapter ASFMRA Fall Meeting at the Portola Plaza Hotel at Monterey Bay October 25 - 27. The complete meeting schedule can be found on page 5 of the newsletter. The Fall Meeting marks the formal conclusion of the chapter's year and includes the Annual Meeting of members and Installation Banquet. This year's meeting will feature an interesting full day ag tour on Friday, October 26 with visits to Ocean Mist Farms, Paraiso Vineyards and Fresh Express. Meeting Chair, JoAnn Wall, has been instrumental in lining up the tour stops and speakers. Continuing Education credit has been granted from ASFMRA for the ag tour and approval is pending with OREA.

The Friday evening Installation and Awards banquet will be preceded by a reception honoring the chapter's newly accredited members. Five California Chapter members passed accreditation exams this summer and will officially be recognized at the annual meeting in San Diego in February. This reception will allow the chapter to show their support and recognize each individual's achievement. Following the reception, enjoy dinner with fellow chapter members and support your incoming officers and board members who will serve in leadership positions for the 2007-2008 membership year.

On Saturday, the chapter will unveil its newest course - Efficient Use of Microsoft Word & Excel in Evaluating Property Economics. This Word/Excel Workshop was developed in response to the results of multiple member surveys and will be taught by Ben Slaughter, ARA. See a complete description in the Fall Meeting Registration insert. You can take the course on Saturday, be finished by mid-afternoon and still have plenty of time to enjoy the Monterey-Carmel area.

For you early birds and fishing enthusiasts, join chapter President, Randy Edwards for a half day Deep Sea Cod Trip with Chris' Fishing Trips of Monterey on Thursday morning. All information is included in the enclosed meeting registration flyer. See who can outfish "the boss" before he steps down from office!

Chapter Supports San Diego Meeting

The California Chapter Board of Directors voted to support Ag Pro Outlook '08, the 2008 annual meeting of ASFMRA, with a donation of $2,500. The funds will go toward the sponsorship of the Accreditation Banquet. Five California Chapter members will be recognized for their designations at this event and the chapter is also showing its support of long-time member, Steve Runyan, ARA, who will be installed as ASFMRA President. We hope that you will plan to attend the annual meeting in San Diego in February. It will be well worth the trip!

The annual Education Foundation Auction is a highlight at the annual meeting and the list of auction items can be both interesting and impressive. The California Chapter is looking to donate several items to the auction and needs your input. If you have ideas or items of interest that you would like to contribute, please contact Suzie in the chapter office (209.368.3672 or secretary@calasfmra.com). Trips, vacation home stays, dinners, hunting and fishing outings, sporting event tickets, etc. are always popular with ASFMRA members and can bring in big dollars to support the Foundation!

Finally, the chapter will be looking for volunteers to assist with the annual meeting while we are in San Diego. If you are interested in helping, please let Suzie in the chapter office know so that she can get you added to the volunteer database.

Thank you in advance for your support of the 2008 Annual Meeting of ASFMRA. It's not often we as a state have the opportunity to host this group of property economics professionals in our own "neighborhood".

Our Dairy Appraisal seminar is now on the fast track as it will be presented at the ASFMRA National Meeting in San Diego in February. This will be a 2-day offering. Randy Edwards is gearing his committee up to have it finished this Fall so that it will be polished and ready to go come February.

Last, the next offering of the Water Seminar and Tour is scheduled for the 2008 Spring Meeting. Committee members will be building upon this past Springs successful tour of Sacramento Valley/Delta facilities. The Kern Water Bank facilities will be included along with several others yet to be decided. The focus last Spring was on waters origination points and transfer of it from north to south. This year we will explore its destination along with innovative storage facilities.

Put these offerings on your calendar and remember ASFMRA and OREA continuing education credits can be earned for all of them.
